Alliance Medical Ministry

About 'A Healthy Start':

Join us on Thursday, April 25, 2019, from 7:30 - 9:00 a.m. for breakfast and conversation around access to healthcare, social determinants of health, and Alliance Medical's on-going efforts to address these issues. You'll hear patient testimonials, and a special message from keynote speaker, Dr. Mandy Cohen, Secretary of the N.C. Department of Health & Human Services.

Dr. Mandy Cohen is an internal medicine physician with extensive experience leading complex health organizations. Before joining DHHS, she was the Chief Operating Officer and Chief of Staff at the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS). A graduate of Cornell University, she received her medical degree from Yale School of Medicine, a Master's in Public Health from the Harvard School of Public Health and trained in Internal Medicine at Massachusetts General Hospital.

About Alliance Medical Ministry:

Approximately 90,000 adults are uninsured in Wake County.

Since 2003, Alliance Medical Ministry has provided access to primary medical care to working, uninsured Wake County adults. Medical care provided at AMM includes primary and specialty care; on-site screenings; off-site referrals for specialty care, screenings and treatments; access to free medication; lab work; mental and spiritual services; health education; an on-site Community Garden; and extensive wellness programming.
